To our Patrons.

It gives us pleasure to inform the patrons of the DEMOCRAT that arrangements have been made to give them, between this time and the first of December, a paper in all respects worthy of their most liberal patronage. New type have been ordered from New York, and new energy is to be infused into the entire management and conduct of the paper, under the be duly appreciated, and our efforts properly rewarded.

 Sons of Temperance.

The State Convention of the Sons of Temperance held their annual convocation in this town on Wednesday and Thursday last. Quite a large number of delegates, from various parts of the State, were in attendance; and they had a | $7,10 cents. very interesting time of it. A procession was formed at their Council Room, on Thu sday, (Thanks-Giving day,) w ich 7 to 8 proceeded, with appropriate banners, to the Methodist church, where able and interesting addresses were delivered by Profemor Sterling and Rev'ds Carraway, Pickett, and Weimore, accompanied by religious ceremonies. We regret that the growded state of our columns to-day denies us the privilege of speaking more fully of this interesting meeting of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of our State.

------Meckjenburg Agricultural Fair.

The Mecklenburg Agricultural Fair will be held in this town on Monday the 22d of November next.

Ample Arrangements will be made to accommodate Exhi- is 8 a 81c. bitors, and it is to be hoped that every thing in the Agricultural line will be brought torward. A county like Mecklenburg, teeming in wealth, boundless in its resources, and owned and filled by a population noted for its good busbandry, should feel that its pride is at stake, and every effort should be made others of the industrial community, not only from this but | bbl. from the surrouncing counties. The spirit of improvement seems to be aroused throughout the State. Let so desirable a spirit be encouraged by all who have at heart their own interests and the prosperity of the Old North State.

CONGRESS-KANSAS-THE SPEAKER OF THE House .- We are given to understand that the election of the Speaker of the House upon the assembling of the new Congress on the first Monday in December, will turn upon the question of the delegate from Kansas. Two delegates have been elected-Whitfield by the pro slavery party, and Reeder by the anti-slavery squatters of the territory. Both will come on to Washington, each as the legitimately elected delegate, and it will be for the House to decide which is the spurious claimant of the seat. The Committee on Elections will have much to do with this decision, and the comsudance of those whose constant attention and talents will position of that committee will depend upon the be devoted to its columns. The determination is, to issue party bias of the Speaker who will have to appoint the DEMOCRAT in a style not to be surpassed in interest and it. Consequently, the whole issue between the bandsome appearance by any paper in the State.
